

FBINAA Leadership Forums

Demonstration, Protest, & Riot Strategies

2020: In four months alone, several organizations reported more than 10,000 demonstrates around the country. Some were peaceful, many were not. Numerous were directly protesting law enforcement. The FBI National Academy Associates has convened knowledgeable presenters to address Law Enforcement Leaders during this two-day forum to ensure that you are prepared to direct your departments and officers to properly respond, manage and lead through these chaotic situations.

Course Objectives:

- Leaders will learn tactics to lead, manage, and supervise through demonstrations and protests
- Lesson will be learned relative to the legal, political, and social impacts of these events
- Through case studies, students will gain knowledge and skills to prepare for the occasion their city, or county is involved in one of these events
- Multi agency preparation and coordination is a must to prepare and plan for demonstrations/riots

The FBI National Academy Associates is dedicated to providing the highest degree of law enforcement expertise, leadership training, and information to law enforcement executives around the world. The FBINAA Gold Standard Training is open to all FBINAA members, as well as anyone in the criminal justice field who wants to expand and develop their leadership skills in order to strengthen their knowledge base, their departments, and their communities.
