

FBINAA
FBI National Academy Associates, Inc.

Name	Edward Bridgeman
NA Graduate	106 th Session
Company/Agency /Organization	University of Cincinnati Clermont College Criminal Justice Department
Email	ed.bridgeman@uc.edu
Cell Phone	(513) 528-2667
Alternate Phone	(513) 732-5251
Topic of Presentation	Futures in Law Enforcement
Title of Presentation	Is Ten Years Enough? New Directions in Policing Since 9/11
Length of Presentation	1 -2 hours
Presentation Objective	Discuss the new paradigms and strategies in Law Enforcement dictated by new realities
Presentation Description	New challenges in local security and counter-terrorism coupled with a drift toward militarization compel law enforcement executives to both plan and be responsive to the community in ways not heretofore dreamed of.
Speaker Bio	Professor Ed Bridgeman in head of the Criminal Justice Technology Program at the University of Cincinnati Clermont College. He spent three decades in law enforcement, rising to the rank of Chief of the UC Police, before retiring and taking over as Head of the Criminal Justice Technology Program at UC. A graduate of the 106th Session of the FBINA, he has a Master's Degree in Public Administration and is a recognized authority on Terrorism. He has lectured and studied in the Mid-East and Europe on counter-terror training and is a certified instructor in several DHS Training topics.