

FBINAA
FBI National Academy Associates, Inc.

SPEAKERS BUREAU

Name	Allan Jones
Company/Agency /Organization	Talavera Consulting Limited
Email	allanjonesqpm@gmail.com
Cell Phone	(209) 479-9438
Topic of Presentation	Crowd Control
Title of Presentation	International Perspectives on Managing Protests
Length of Presentation	2-4 hours
Presentation Objective	To provide strategic and operational commanders international lessons learned on handling protest
Have you ever presented on this topic before?	Yes
Referral Source	Chapter
Referral Source Name	Cris Trulsson, Treasurer, California Chapter
Referral Source Email	ctrulsson@comcast.net
Presentation Description	The presentation will take police commanders through a series of lessons learned from international police forces on handling protest. It will look at failures as well as successes and will look at the psychology of crowd behavior and the interaction between the police and the protestor. It will look specifically at major protests in London and Belfast and will examine how the mishandling of protests led to the downfall of leaders across the Middle East and three secret of how one country remained untouched!

Speaker Bio

Allan Jones is an accomplished international policing advisor who specializes in leadership, crowd management, and conflict resolution - all key elements in the transformational policing strategies and practices he was instrumental in helping to develop in conflict and post-conflict Northern Ireland to protect life and uphold human rights. He has been formally recognized at the highest level during 30 years of outstanding service in the Royal Ulster Constabulary (RUC) and its successor, the Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI). He is now deeply involved in assisting police and security forces in Eastern Europe, Africa, the Middle East, and the United States, advising on new policing strategies relating to terrorism, public order, protest management, and crowd control - strategies which recognize the fundamental right to peaceful protest, but are designed to prevent incendiary escalation possibly leading to radicalism and dangerous external intervention. Allan Jones was personally decorated by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, for the resolution of long standing violence surrounding the Holy Cross School in North Belfast, Northern Ireland.

Additional Comments

Allan Jones presented at the FBI NAA National Re-trainer Conference in Long Beach (2011), four times for the FBI NAA California Chapter Re-Trainer Conference (2010)(2012)(2014)(2015, and once for the FBI NAA Ohio Chapter Re-Trainer Conference (2013)

He has received outstanding feedback from students on all occasions!

FBINAA
FBI National Academy Associates, Inc.

SPEAKERS BUREAU

Name	Allan Jones
Company/Agency /Organization	Talavera Consulting Limited
Email	allanjonesqpm@gmail.com
Cell Phone	(209) 479-9438
Topic of Presentation	Critical Incidents
Title of Presentation	The Psychology of Decision Making
Length of Presentation	2-4 hours
Presentation Objective	To explain to Police Commanders the psychology involved in decision making, especially in stressful circumstances
Have you ever presented on this topic before?	Yes
Referral Source	Chapter
Referral Source Name	Cris Trulsson, Treasurer (and former Training Manager), California Chapter
Referral Source Email	ctrulsson@comcast.net
Presentation Description	The presentation will take police commanders through the mental process of making decisions and assist them in how to record and explain their decisions making process to others. It will go through the process of rational decision making and explain how a decision model can be designed to assist their role of functions. It will look at intuitive or fast time (critical incident) decision making and help the commander understand how to improve this function not only in themselves but also in their officers. Finally, it will explain the emotive functions of the brain and how to manage them and recognize them in themselves and others. This class is a must for commanders of critical incidents!

Speaker Bio

Allan Jones is an accomplished international policing advisor who specializes in leadership, crowd management, and conflict resolution - all key elements in the transformational policing strategies and practices he was instrumental in helping to develop in conflict and post-conflict Northern Ireland to protect life and uphold human rights. He has been formally recognized at the highest level during 30 years of outstanding service in the Royal Ulster Constabulary (RUC) and its successor, the Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI). He is now deeply involved in assisting police and security forces in Eastern Europe, Africa, the Middle East, and the United States, advising on new policing strategies relating to terrorism, public order, protest management, and crowd control - strategies which recognize the fundamental right to peaceful protest, but are designed to prevent incendiary escalation possibly leading to radicalism and dangerous external intervention. Allan Jones was personally decorated by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, for the resolution of long standing violence surrounding the Holy Cross School in North Belfast, Northern Ireland.

Additional Comments

Allan Jones presented at the FBI NAA National Re-trainer Conference in Long Beach (2011), four times for the FBI NAA California Chapter Re-Trainer Conference (2010)(2012)(2014)(2015, and once for the FBI NAA Ohio Chapter Re-Trainer Conference (2013) He has received outstanding feedback from students on all occasions!