

FBINAA
FBI National Academy Associates, Inc.

SPEAKERS BUREAU

Name	Chris Dlugozima
Company/Agency /Organization	GreenPath, Inc.
Email	cdlugozima@greenpath.com
Cell Phone	(347) 860-4983
Topic of Presentation	Financial Literacy
Title of Presentation	Steps to Financial Freedom
Length of Presentation	60 minutes
Presentation Objective	Teach people about budgeting, credit reports/scores, dealing with debt, saving, investing, home ownership
Presentation Description	Have you dreamed of a life free from financial worry? Then this is the workshop for you. We will guide you through steps designed to improve your budget, improve your credit and reach your financial goals. Topics discussed include credit reports, debt management, money management, investing and retirement. Whether you're just starting out or trying to rebound from earlier mistakes, you will leave with information to get you on track.
Speaker Bio	Chris Dlugozima is GreenPath's New York based community educator. He travels around the NY tri-state area to educate people on a variety of financial literacy topics. Each year, he leads over 150 presentations, reaching more than 3000 individuals. His presentations reach groups from all walks of life, including high schools, substance abuse programs, senior living facilities and employers, such as the F.B.I. Prior to his current role, Chris was a financial counselor with GreenPath, assisting more than 7000 individuals and couples.

If applicable, upload supporting documentation or abstract for your presentation

https://s3.amazonaws.com/files.formstack.com/uploads/1922558/30022528/182861510/30022528_workshops_v2.pdf

Additional Comments

I've also attached a PDF that gives details about other financial literacy topics I'm able to cover. Please note that although I presented at the FBINAA conference in Philadelphia, my service area is the New York City area, including Long Island, Westchester and northern New Jersey.