Tatum Hoffmann of Bend has been selected by a panel of Oregon Chapter members to attend the Youth Leadership Program in Quantico this June. A total of nine kids were invited to the interviews in this highly competitive selection process. A special thank you to the interview panel and a congratulations to Tatum!

The Oregon Chapter would like to welcome new Portland FBI Special Agent in Charge, Doug A. Olson.

SAC Olson most recently served as a section chief in the Criminal Investigative Division at FBI Headquarters in Washington, D.C.

SAC Olson joined the FBI as a special agent in 2003 and was assigned to the Greensboro Resident Agency of the Charlotte Field Office in North Carolina. He worked a variety of criminal and national security matters, including violent crime, white-collar crime, and counterterrorism investigations. In 2006, SAC Olson transferred to the New York Field Office and investigated organized crime. He was recognized for his efforts investigating members of the Genovese Organized Crime family.

In 2009, SAC Olson was promoted to supervisory special agent and reported to FBI Headquarters as the program manager of the Eurasian Organized Crime Unit of the Criminal Investigative Division. During this time, he helped establish five new assistant legal attaché positions focused on criminal matters. SAC Olson was selected in 2013 to serve as the supervisory senior resident agent of the Salem Resident Agency of the Portland Field Office and was responsible for all FBI programs in Salem.

SAC Olson was promoted to assistant legal attaché in 2016 and served in the Stockholm suboffice of the FBI's legal attaché office in Copenhagen, Denmark. He received an Attorney General Award for his work to further the interests of U.S. national security.

In 2019, SAC Olson was named an assistant special agent in charge of the Pittsburgh Field Office, where he was responsible for the cyber, counterintelligence, intelligence, and mission support programs. He was promoted in 2022 to chief of the Operational Support Section of the Criminal Investigative Division at Headquarters.

SAC Olson earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Virginia Polytechnic State University. Prior to joining the FBI, he served in the U.S. Marine Corps as a scout-sniper platoon commander and intelligence officer.
