

SPEAKERS BUREAU

Presentation Information

Presentation Category	Executive Leadership
Presentation Title	Leadership and Legacy: A Comprehensive Seminar on Style, Motivation, Communication, Performance, Mentorship, and Legacy Building
Presentation Length	8 Hours
Presentation Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Learn leadership styles to facilitate organizational effectiveness.• Understand the important roles of motivation, discipline, and responsibility for both throughout the chain of command.• Learn from real-world examples highlighting the importance of effective written and verbal communication.• Receive exclusive training that focuses on important issues for officers who are at the start of their careers as well as those who are in those last few years, gaining insights on the importance of creating a leadership foundation and focusing on building a lasting legacy• Use engaging leadership and leveraging it in order to build resiliency in the agency and yourself.
Presentation Description	This enriching one-day seminar delves deep into the multifaceted world of leadership. In this informative and engaging event, we'll explore the art of adaptive leadership, helping you identify and harness your unique strengths to become an effective and inspiring leader. Your presenter, Paul Bailey, will share invaluable insights into mentorship and engagement, guiding you on how to nurture talent, foster growth, and leave a lasting impact on your organization and beyond.

	The curriculum explores a wide variety of topics that have direct and immediate impact on members at every level of the organization including leadership styles, motivation and discipline, effective communication for leadership, the benefits of legacy building, and the importance of engaging leadership to building resiliency in the organization and yourself.
Speaker Name & Session	Paul Bailey, NA Session 281
Speaker Phone Number	(732) 856-0611
Speaker Email	pbailey@middletownnj.org
Speaker's Biography	Paul Bailey is a professional police executive with over 30 years of service and experience. He is actively serving as Deputy Chief of Police with the Middletown Twp. Police Department in Middletown, New Jersey. Paul has a broad range of professional experience, having served as a Patrolman, Field Training Officer, Detective, Sergeant, Lieutenant, and Detective Bureau Commander. In his current assignment, Deputy Chief Bailey oversees the Office of Professional Standards and Training. Additionally, he has served as the Public Information Officer for the Department for the last 9 years. Deputy Chief Bailey is a graduate of the FBI National Academy, Session 281. He has a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Glassboro State College (now Rowan University) and a Graduate Certificate from University of Virginia. Paul is an accomplished instructor, public speaker, and author, having had articles published by Police 1 Magazine and the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin. He has also had the honor of presenting to the FBI National Academy, the United States Army, and other municipal Police Departments on the topics of leadership, resiliency, and overcoming adversity. Additionally, he is the owner of Bailey Training & Consulting, specializing in training on the topics of leadership, supervision, crisis communications, and resiliency.